DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES OFFERED TO OUR VALUED CUSTOMERS

Wildlife safaris in Uganda and other tours of interest:

Cultural Tours

The four major kingdoms of Uganda, and the well-established chiefdoms throughout the country, provide a potential market for cultural tourism. African Buffalo Safaris aims at developing market potential for cultural tourism as part of national development and nation building.

A new cultural centre has recently been opened in the area of Mbarara, close to the borders with Rwanda and Tanzania: Nshenyi village. This traditional farm is the perfect combination of nature and culture, giving visitors the opportunity to get in close contact with the local people and learn about their culture from first hand.

Adventure Tours

African Buffalo Safaris offers any type of adrenaline-pumping adventure which is desired by customers, from mountaineering expeditions on the Rwenzori Mountains to gorilla tracking and wild water rafting on the Nile.

Relaxing Holidays

For more relaxing excursions and activities customers can choose for a beach tour on the Ssesse islands, stay at Lake Bunyonyi or visit the Tororo rock paintings of the virungas.

Special interest journeys in Uganda: besides the classical safaris, African Buffalo Safaris offers theme packages and special interest tours, like golf packages, honeymoons and tribal tours.

Tours in neighboring countries: African Buffalo Safaris doesn't only provide packages in Uganda, but in Rwanda, Kenya and Tanzania as well. With this African Buffalo Safaris wholesalers the opportunity to simplify their contact with East Africa.

AFRICAN BUFFALO SAFARIS LTD Management Philosophy

What is it that sets AFRICAN BUFFALO SAFARIS LTD apart from the rest? We are unique! AFRICAN BUFFALO SAFARIS LTD recognizes that our people are our most important resource and it is through our people that we achieve success.

AFRICAN BUFFALO SAFARIS LTD embarks upon a shift in management philosophy: RSTMM (Recruit, Select, Train, Manage and motivate). Each of our managers receives RSTMM training. RSTMM has now been coupled to our Core Values. This will result in a dynamic management approach to better assure effective mentoring of our people and assisting them in identifying and meeting their career and personal goals.

We are guided by three basic concepts:

1. Behavioral Trends (the right person for the right job)

We strive to match people to their jobs with consideration of each individual's behavioral tendencies. With this approach, our people are more effective and more satisfied because they are performing functions for which they are well suited.

2. Balanced Circles

It is understood that each of us has three circles in our lives: family, personal and business. On our best day, we spend time in each circle to achieve a qualitative balance.

3. Target Planning

In its most succinct form, we ask our people to identify their personal and business someday goals. Then, we encourage each person to achieve personal someday goals through success in the business.

This fosters team work because each individual's achievement is linked directly or indirectly to goal attainment for others. We maintain this system through regular one-on-one meetings with our people.

Core Values

This is who we Are and What We Stand For, We are guided by our Core Values.

Integrity

We stick to our word. We are straight forward, candid, and Franck. We don't play games among ourselves, with our clients or other business associates.

Work Ethic

We work hard; this is a competitive business and we put forth extra effort to meet our commitments.

Professional Challenge

We continue to learn. We take pride in accomplishing challenging assignments. We look forward to change and application of new ideas and demonstrated technology.

Team work

We know that we accomplish much more together than we can as individuals. We work as members of a team, with fellow employees, clients and business associates.

Results

We produce. We set goals and then take effective action to accomplish them. We consider new methods and implement improvements.

Client Service

We make every effort to understand our clients' needs and objectives and then we take action to support and assist the client in achieving those goals.
